

Minnesota law requires wage loss reimbursement when you miss work to obtain medical care or when your medical care provider disables you from working.*

Your insurance company must pay you 85% of your lost wages, up to a maximum of $250.00 per week.

To obtain wage loss reimbursement:

- 1) Keep track of all lost wages. This includes travel time to and from the chiropractor/physician.
- 2) Fill in your hourly rate of pay.
- 3) Total your wage loss at the end of each month on the upper and lower portion of this form.
- 4) Separate form at dotted line and send the upper portion to your insurance company.
- 5) Retain the lower portion for your records
- 6) You should receive you wage reimbursement within 30 days.

*Minnesota Statutes Sec. 65B.44, Subd.3

Minimum weekly limit; your coverage may be more--please check your policy.
